SOUTH CAROLINA ELECTRIC AND
GAS COMPANY'S FIRST SET OF
INTERROGATORIES AND FIRST
REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF
DOCUMENTS TO WAL-MART STORES
EAST, LP AND SAM'S EAST,
INCORPORATED

TO: COUNSEL FOR WAL-MART STORES EAST, LP AND SAM'S EAST, INCORPORATED

South Carolina Electric & Gas Company ("SCE&G") by and through the undersigned counsel and pursuant to 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 103-833 and S.C.R. Civ. P. 26, 33, and 34, hereby requests that Wal-Mart Stores East, LP and Sam's East, Incorporated answer fully and separately, in writing and under oath, the following interrogatories and requests for production of documents within the time prescribed by 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. R. 103-833 and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and produce for inspection and copying the following designated documents in your possession or control at the offices of Womble Bond Dickinson (US) LLP, 1221 Main Street, Suite 1600, Columbia, South Carolina 29201, on or before September 13, 2018.

INSTRUCTIONS

Wal-Mart Stores East, LP and Sam's East, Incorporated's responses to SCE&G's First Set of Interrogatories and First Requests for Production of Documents (collectively, the "Requests") should include not only all information and documents available to Wal-Mart Stores East, LP and Sam's East, Incorporated, but also all information and documents available to its attorneys, investigators, consultants, agents, or other representatives acting on its behalf. Please respond to the Requests in accordance with the following instructions:

1. Claims of Privilege and Exception to Discovery. If you refuse to disclose any document requested herein, in whole or in part, based on any claim of privilege or immunity, please identify the specific privilege or protection claimed and state the basis for the claim, identifying the pertinent circumstances with sufficient specificity to permit SCE&G to assess the basis of any such claim.

2. Continuing Nature. These Requests are intended to be, and shall be, answered or responded to fully as of the date of response and shall be deemed to be continuing thereafter until the conclusion of this matter. If you should subsequently acquire any further responsive information or documents called for by these requests, you should promptly furnish such information or documents to the undersigned counsel.

3. Objections. If you have a good-faith objection to any of these Requests, or any part thereof, the specific nature of the objection and whether it applies to the entire Request or to a certain portion thereof shall be clearly stated. If there is an objection to any part of a Request, then the part or parts objected to should be indicated and documents responsive to the remaining unobjectionable parts should be provided.

4. Language. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa. Reference to one gender includes the other gender. The word “all” means any and all. The word “including” means “including without limitation.”

5. Time Period. Unless otherwise indicated, these Requests cover the time period from November 1, 2015, until the present.

DEFINITIONS

1. “Combined Regulatory Proceedings.” The term “Combined Regulatory Proceedings” is used herein to collectively refer to the following dockets that are currently pending before the Public Services Commission of South Carolina (the “Commission”) and which have been consolidated for proceedings before the Commission: (a) Docket No. 2017-207-E, which was initiated by Friends of the Earth’s and Sierra Club’s filing of their “Complaint of Friends of the Earth and Sierra Club”; (b) Docket No. 2017-305-E, which was initiated on September 26, 2017, by ORS’s filing of its “Request for Rate Relief to SCE&G Rates Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 58-27-920”; and (c) Docket No. 2017-370-E, which was initiated by

SCE&G's and Dominion Energy, Inc.'s filing of their "Joint Application and Petition of South Carolina Electric & Gas Company and Dominion Energy, Inc."

2. "Communication." The word "communication" is used herein to refer to any transmission or exchange of information, whether orally, electronically, or in writing, including, without limitation, any conversations, memoranda, telephone calls, telegraphs, telexes, telecopiers, facsimiles, e-mails, cables, or any other mediums of transmission.

3. "Describe," "Description," "Summarize," or "Summary." The words "describe," "description," "summarize," and "summary," when used with respect to any act, negotiation, practice, process, occurrence, occasion, transaction, incident, or course of conduct, means to provide the following information: (i) the time and place thereof; (ii) a chronological account setting forth each element thereof, what such element consisted of, and what transpired as a result thereof; and (iii) the identity of each person involved.

4. "Document" or "Documents." The words "document" and "documents" are used herein in the most comprehensive and inclusive sense permitted by the regulations of the Commission and Rule 34 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and therefore include, but are not limited to, all forms of recorded information in your actual or constructive possession, custody, or control, whether handwritten, typed, printed, recorded, or stored on computer or personal storage devices, diskettes, videotapes, audio tapes, or photographic film, as well as electronically stored information and data compilations. The terms "document" and "documents" also include any drafts or versions thereof, and all copies on which any mark, alteration, writing, attachment, or any other change from the original appears. By way of example and not limitation, the terms "document" and "documents" include: letters, correspondence, memoranda, e-mail and other electronic communications, voice-mail recordings, facsimile or telefax transmissions, telex or telegrams, film or photographic prints, video or audio recordings, blueprints, drawings, charts, specimens, models, word processing files, PowerPoint files, spreadsheets, images, metadata, programs, databases, and data compilations.

5. “Identify.” The word “identify,” when used with respect to a document, shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) its name or title; (ii) the nature and substance of the document with sufficient particularity to enable it to be identified; (iii) the date of preparation; and (iv) the author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s). When used with respect to a person, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) his or her name; (ii) if a natural person, his or her last-known residential address, telephone number, and e-mail address; and (iii) if a business organization, its last-known complete address and telephone number. With respect to a communication, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) the date and place thereof; (ii) the type of communication (e.g., in-person conversation, e-mail, letter, telephone conversation); (iii) the name, business address, job title, and responsibilities of each person who participated therein, or witnessed or heard any part thereof; (iv) the substance of what was said by each person who participated therein; and (v) the identity of all documents relating thereto.

6. “ORS.” The term “ORS” is used herein to refer to the South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff, as well as all of its predecessors, subsidiaries, related entities, agents, attorneys, directors, employees, officers, and representatives.

7. “People” and “Person.” The words “people” and “person” shall include natural persons, proprietorships, corporations, public corporations, municipal corporations, state governments, local governments, governmental agencies, political subdivisions, partnerships, groups, associations, and other businesses and public organizations.

8. “Relate,” “Relating,” “Relating to,” and “Related to.” The terms “relate,” “relating,” “relating to,” and “related to” mean recording, summarizing, embodying, constituting, reflecting, digesting, referring to, commenting upon, describing, reporting, listing, analyzing, studying, or otherwise discussing in any way a subject matter identified in the Request, and is defined so as to reach all matters within the scope of discovery pursuant to the Commission’s Regulations and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, including all information which, though inadmissible at trial, is reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

9. “You” and “Your.” The words “you” and “your” refer to Wal-Mart Stores East, LP and Sam’s East, Incorporated, the party to which these Requests are directed, as well as its executive officers (past and present), agents, employees (past and present), representatives, successors, or any other person or persons acting for or purportedly acting on Wal-Mart Stores East, LP and Sam’s East, Incorporated’s behalf.

REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF
DOCUMENTS TO CENTRAL ELECTRIC POWER COOPERATIVE, INC.

TO: COUNSEL FOR CENTRAL ELECTRIC POWER COOPERATIVE, INC.

South Carolina Electric & Gas Company ("SCE&G") by and through the undersigned counsel and pursuant to 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 103-833 and S.C.R. Civ. P. 26, 33, and 34, hereby requests that Central Electric Power Cooperative, Inc. answer fully and separately, in writing and under oath, the following interrogatories and requests for production of documents within the time prescribed by 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. R. 103-833 and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and produce for inspection and copying the following designated documents in your possession or control at the offices of Womble Bond Dickinson (US) LLP, 1221 Main Street, Suite 1600, Columbia, South Carolina 29201, on or before September 13, 2018.

INSTRUCTIONS

Central Electric Power Cooperative, Inc.'s responses to SCE&G's First Set of Interrogatories and First Requests for Production of Documents (collectively, the "Requests") should include not only all information and documents available to Central Electric Power Cooperative, Inc., but also all information and documents available to its attorneys, investigators, consultants, agents, or other representatives acting on its behalf. Please respond to the Requests in accordance with the following instructions:

1. Claims of Privilege and Exception to Discovery. If you refuse to disclose any document requested herein, in whole or in part, based on any claim of privilege or immunity, please identify the specific privilege or protection claimed and state the basis for the claim, identifying the pertinent circumstances with sufficient specificity to permit SCE&G to assess the basis of any such claim.

2. Continuing Nature. These Requests are intended to be, and shall be, answered or responded to fully as of the date of response and shall be deemed to be continuing thereafter until the conclusion of this matter. If you should subsequently acquire any further responsive information or documents called for by these requests, you should promptly furnish such information or documents to the undersigned counsel.

3. Objections. If you have a good-faith objection to any of these Requests, or any part thereof, the specific nature of the objection and whether it applies to the entire Request or to a certain portion thereof shall be clearly stated. If there is an objection to any part of a Request, then the part or parts objected to should be indicated and documents responsive to the remaining unobjectionable parts should be provided.

4. Language. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa. Reference to one gender includes the other gender. The word “all” means any and all. The word “including” means “including without limitation.”

5. Time Period. Unless otherwise indicated, these Requests cover the time period from November 1, 2015, until the present.

DEFINITIONS

1. “Combined Regulatory Proceedings.” The term “Combined Regulatory Proceedings” is used herein to collectively refer to the following dockets that are currently pending before the Public Services Commission of South Carolina (the “Commission”) and which have been consolidated for proceedings before the Commission: (a) Docket No. 2017-207-E, which was initiated by Friends of the Earth’s and Sierra Club’s filing of their “Complaint of Friends of the Earth and Sierra Club”; (b) Docket No. 2017-305-E, which was initiated on September 26, 2017, by ORS’s filing of its “Request for Rate Relief to SCE&G Rates Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 58-27-920”; and (c) Docket No. 2017-370-E, which was initiated by SCE&G’s and Dominion Energy, Inc.’s filing of their “Joint Application and Petition of South Carolina Electric & Gas Company and Dominion Energy, Inc.”

2. “Communication.” The word “communication” is used herein to refer to any transmission or exchange of information, whether orally, electronically, or in writing, including, without limitation, any conversations, memoranda, telephone calls, telegraphs, telexes, telecopiers, facsimiles, e-mails, cables, or any other mediums of transmission.

3. “Describe,” “Description,” “Summarize,” or “Summary.” The words “describe,” “description,” “summarize,” and “summary,” when used with respect to any act, negotiation, practice, process, occurrence, occasion, transaction, incident, or course of conduct, means to provide the following information: (i) the time and place thereof; (ii) a chronological account setting forth each element thereof, what such element consisted of, and what transpired as a result thereof; and (iii) the identity of each person involved.

4. “Document” or “Documents.” The words “document” and “documents” are used herein in the most comprehensive and inclusive sense permitted by the regulations of the Commission and Rule 34 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and therefore include, but are not limited to, all forms of recorded information in your actual or constructive possession, custody, or control, whether handwritten, typed, printed, recorded, or stored on computer or personal storage devices, diskettes, videotapes, audio tapes, or photographic film, as well as electronically stored information and data compilations. The terms “document” and “documents” also include any drafts or versions thereof, and all copies on which any mark, alteration, writing, attachment, or any other change from the original appears. By way of example and not limitation, the terms “document” and “documents” include: letters, correspondence, memoranda, e-mail and other electronic communications, voice-mail recordings, facsimile or telefax transmissions, telex or telegrams, film or photographic prints, video or audio recordings, blueprints, drawings, charts, specimens, models, word processing files, PowerPoint files, spreadsheets, images, metadata, programs, databases, and data compilations.

5. “Identify.” The word “identify,” when used with respect to a document, shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) its name or title; (ii) the nature and substance of the document with sufficient particularity to enable it to be identified; (iii) the date of preparation; and (iv) the author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s). When used with respect to a person, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) his or her name; (ii) if a natural person, his or her last-known residential address, telephone number, and e-mail address; and (iii) if a business organization, its last-known complete address and telephone number. With respect to a communication, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) the date and place thereof; (ii) the type of communication (e.g., in-person conversation, e-mail, letter, telephone conversation); (iii) the name, business address, job title, and responsibilities of each person who participated therein, or witnessed or heard any part thereof; (iv) the substance of what was said by each person who participated therein; and (v) the identity of all documents relating thereto.

6. “ORS.” The term “ORS” is used herein to refer to the South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff, as well as all of its predecessors, subsidiaries, related entities, agents, attorneys, directors, employees, officers, and representatives.

7. “People” and “Person.” The words “people” and “person” shall include natural persons, proprietorships, corporations, public corporations, municipal corporations, state governments, local governments, governmental agencies, political subdivisions, partnerships, groups, associations, and other businesses and public organizations.

8. “Relate,” “Relating,” “Relating to,” and “Related to.” The terms “relate,” “relating,” “relating to,” and “related to” mean recording, summarizing, embodying, constituting, reflecting, digesting, referring to, commenting upon, describing, reporting, listing, analyzing, studying, or otherwise discussing in any way a subject matter identified in the Request, and is defined so as to reach all matters within the scope of discovery pursuant to the Commission’s Regulations and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, including all information which, though inadmissible at trial, is reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

9. “You” and “Your.” The words “you” and “your” refer to Central Electric Power Cooperative, Inc., the party to which these Requests are directed, as well as its President and CEO (past and present), agents, employees (past and present), representatives, successors, or any other person or persons acting for or purportedly acting on Central Electric Power Cooperative, Inc.’s behalf.

1. “Combined Regulatory Proceedings.” The term “Combined Regulatory Proceedings” is used herein to collectively refer to the following dockets that are currently pending before the Public Services Commission of South Carolina (the “Commission”) and which have been consolidated for proceedings before the Commission: (a) Docket No. 2017-207-E, which was initiated by Friends of the Earth’s and Sierra Club’s filing of their “Complaint of Friends of the Earth and Sierra Club”; (b) Docket No. 2017-305-E, which was initiated on September 26, 2017, by ORS’s filing of its “Request for Rate Relief to SCE&G Rates Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 58-27-920”; and (c) Docket No. 2017-370-E, which was initiated by

SCE&G's and Dominion Energy, Inc.'s filing of their "Joint Application and Petition of South Carolina Electric & Gas Company and Dominion Energy, Inc."

2. "Communication." The word "communication" is used herein to refer to any transmission or exchange of information, whether orally, electronically, or in writing, including, without limitation, any conversations, memoranda, telephone calls, telegraphs, telexes, telecopiers, facsimiles, e-mails, cables, or any other mediums of transmission.

3. "Describe," "Description," "Summarize," or "Summary." The words "describe," "description," "summarize," and "summary," when used with respect to any act, negotiation, practice, process, occurrence, occasion, transaction, incident, or course of conduct, means to provide the following information: (i) the time and place thereof; (ii) a chronological account setting forth each element thereof, what such element consisted of, and what transpired as a result thereof; and (iii) the identity of each person involved.

4. "Document" or "Documents." The words "document" and "documents" are used herein in the most comprehensive and inclusive sense permitted by the regulations of the Commission and Rule 34 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and therefore include, but are not limited to, all forms of recorded information in your actual or constructive possession, custody, or control, whether handwritten, typed, printed, recorded, or stored on computer or personal storage devices, diskettes, videotapes, audio tapes, or photographic film, as well as electronically stored information and data compilations. The terms "document" and "documents" also include any drafts or versions thereof, and all copies on which any mark, alteration, writing, attachment, or any other change from the original appears. By way of example and not limitation, the terms "document" and "documents" include: letters, correspondence, memoranda, e-mail and other electronic communications, voice-mail recordings, facsimile or telefax transmissions, telex or telegrams, film or photographic prints, video or audio recordings, blueprints, drawings, charts, specimens, models, word processing files, PowerPoint files, spreadsheets, images, metadata, programs, databases, and data compilations.

5. “Identify.” The word “identify,” when used with respect to a document, shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) its name or title; (ii) the nature and substance of the document with sufficient particularity to enable it to be identified; (iii) the date of preparation; and (iv) the author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s). When used with respect to a person, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) his or her name; (ii) if a natural person, his or her last-known residential address, telephone number, and e-mail address; and (iii) if a business organization, its last-known complete address and telephone number. With respect to a communication, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) the date and place thereof; (ii) the type of communication (e.g., in-person conversation, e-mail, letter, telephone conversation); (iii) the name, business address, job title, and responsibilities of each person who participated therein, or witnessed or heard any part thereof; (iv) the substance of what was said by each person who participated therein; and (v) the identity of all documents relating thereto.

6. “ORS.” The term “ORS” is used herein to refer to the South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff, as well as all of its predecessors, subsidiaries, related entities, agents, attorneys, directors, employees, officers, and representatives.

7. “People” and “Person.” The words “people” and “person” shall include natural persons, proprietorships, corporations, public corporations, municipal corporations, state governments, local governments, governmental agencies, political subdivisions, partnerships, groups, associations, and other businesses and public organizations.

8. “Relate,” “Relating,” “Relating to,” and “Related to.” The terms “relate,” “relating,” “relating to,” and “related to” mean recording, summarizing, embodying, constituting, reflecting, digesting, referring to, commenting upon, describing, reporting, listing, analyzing, studying, or otherwise discussing in any way a subject matter identified in the Request, and is defined so as to reach all matters within the scope of discovery pursuant to the Commission’s Regulations and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, including all information which, though inadmissible at trial, is reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

9. “You” and “Your.” The words “you” and “your” refer to the United States Department of Defense and All Other Federal Executive Agencies, the party to which these Requests are directed, as well as their Secretaries and Directors (past and present), agents, employees (past and present), representatives, successors, or any other person or persons acting for or purportedly acting on behalf of the United States Department of Defense and All Other Federal Executive Agencies.

REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF
DOCUMENTS TO SPEAKER JAMES H.
"JAY" LUCAS AND THE SOUTH CAROLINA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TO: COUNSEL FOR SPEAKER JAMES H. "JAY" LUCAS AND THE SOUTH CAROLINA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

South Carolina Electric & Gas Company ("SCE&G") by and through the undersigned counsel and pursuant to 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 103-833 and S.C.R. Civ. P. 26, 33, and 34, hereby requests that Speaker James H. "Jay" Lucas and the South Carolina House of Representatives answer fully and separately, in writing and under oath, the following interrogatories and requests for production of documents within the time prescribed by 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. R. 103-833 and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and produce for inspection and copying the following designated documents in your possession or control at the offices of Womble Bond Dickinson (US) LLP, 1221 Main Street, Suite 1600, Columbia, South Carolina 29201, on or before September 13, 2018.

INSTRUCTIONS

Speaker James H. "Jay" Lucas and the South Carolina House of Representatives' responses to SCE&G's First Set of Interrogatories and First Requests for Production of Documents (collectively, the "Requests") should include not only all information and documents available to Speaker James H. "Jay" Lucas and the South Carolina House of Representatives, but also all information and documents available to its attorneys, investigators, consultants, agents, or other representatives acting on its behalf. Please respond to the Requests in accordance with the following instructions:

1. Claims of Privilege and Exception to Discovery. If you refuse to disclose any document requested herein, in whole or in part, based on any claim of privilege or immunity, please identify the specific privilege or protection claimed and state the basis for the claim, identifying the pertinent circumstances with sufficient specificity to permit SCE&G to assess the basis of any such claim.

2. Continuing Nature. These Requests are intended to be, and shall be, answered or responded to fully as of the date of response and shall be deemed to be continuing thereafter until the conclusion of this matter. If you should subsequently acquire any further responsive information or documents called for by these requests, you should promptly furnish such information or documents to the undersigned counsel.

3. Objections. If you have a good-faith objection to any of these Requests, or any part thereof, the specific nature of the objection and whether it applies to the entire Request or to a certain portion thereof shall be clearly stated. If there is an objection to any part of a Request, then the part or parts objected to should be indicated and documents responsive to the remaining unobjectionable parts should be provided.

4. Language. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa. Reference to one gender includes the other gender. The word “all” means any and all. The word “including” means “including without limitation.”

5. Time Period. Unless otherwise indicated, these Requests cover the time period from November 1, 2015, until the present.

DEFINITIONS

1. “Combined Regulatory Proceedings.” The term “Combined Regulatory Proceedings” is used herein to collectively refer to the following dockets that are currently pending before the Public Services Commission of South Carolina (the “Commission”) and which have been consolidated for proceedings before the Commission: (a) Docket No. 2017-207-E, which was initiated by Friends of the Earth’s and Sierra Club’s filing of their “Complaint of Friends of the Earth and Sierra Club”; (b) Docket No. 2017-305-E, which was initiated on September 26, 2017, by ORS’s filing of its “Request for Rate Relief to SCE&G Rates Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 58-27-920”; and (c) Docket No. 2017-370-E, which was initiated by

SCE&G's and Dominion Energy, Inc.'s filing of their "Joint Application and Petition of South Carolina Electric & Gas Company and Dominion Energy, Inc."

2. "Communication." The word "communication" is used herein to refer to any transmission or exchange of information, whether orally, electronically, or in writing, including, without limitation, any conversations, memoranda, telephone calls, telegraphs, telexes, telecopiers, facsimiles, e-mails, cables, or any other mediums of transmission.

3. "Describe," "Description," "Summarize," or "Summary." The words "describe," "description," "summarize," and "summary," when used with respect to any act, negotiation, practice, process, occurrence, occasion, transaction, incident, or course of conduct, means to provide the following information: (i) the time and place thereof; (ii) a chronological account setting forth each element thereof, what such element consisted of, and what transpired as a result thereof; and (iii) the identity of each person involved.

4. "Document" or "Documents." The words "document" and "documents" are used herein in the most comprehensive and inclusive sense permitted by the regulations of the Commission and Rule 34 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and therefore include, but are not limited to, all forms of recorded information in your actual or constructive possession, custody, or control, whether handwritten, typed, printed, recorded, or stored on computer or personal storage devices, diskettes, videotapes, audio tapes, or photographic film, as well as electronically stored information and data compilations. The terms "document" and "documents" also include any drafts or versions thereof, and all copies on which any mark, alteration, writing, attachment, or any other change from the original appears. By way of example and not limitation, the terms "document" and "documents" include: letters, correspondence, memoranda, e-mail and other electronic communications, voice-mail recordings, facsimile or telefax transmissions, telex or telegrams, film or photographic prints, video or audio recordings, blueprints, drawings, charts, specimens, models, word processing files, PowerPoint files, spreadsheets, images, metadata, programs, databases, and data compilations.

5. “Identify.” The word “identify,” when used with respect to a document, shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) its name or title; (ii) the nature and substance of the document with sufficient particularity to enable it to be identified; (iii) the date of preparation; and (iv) the author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s). When used with respect to a person, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) his or her name; (ii) if a natural person, his or her last-known residential address, telephone number, and e-mail address; and (iii) if a business organization, its last-known complete address and telephone number. With respect to a communication, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) the date and place thereof; (ii) the type of communication (e.g., in-person conversation, e-mail, letter, telephone conversation); (iii) the name, business address, job title, and responsibilities of each person who participated therein, or witnessed or heard any part thereof; (iv) the substance of what was said by each person who participated therein; and (v) the identity of all documents relating thereto.

6. “ORS.” The term “ORS” is used herein to refer to the South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff, as well as all of its predecessors, subsidiaries, related entities, agents, attorneys, directors, employees, officers, and representatives.

7. “People” and “Person.” The words “people” and “person” shall include natural persons, proprietorships, corporations, public corporations, municipal corporations, state governments, local governments, governmental agencies, political subdivisions, partnerships, groups, associations, and other businesses and public organizations.

8. “Relate,” “Relating,” “Relating to,” and “Related to.” The terms “relate,” “relating,” “relating to,” and “related to” mean recording, summarizing, embodying, constituting, reflecting, digesting, referring to, commenting upon, describing, reporting, listing, analyzing, studying, or otherwise discussing in any way a subject matter identified in the Request, and is defined so as to reach all matters within the scope of discovery pursuant to the Commission’s Regulations and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, including all information which, though inadmissible at trial, is reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

9. “You” and “Your.” The words “you” and “your” refer to Speaker James H. “Jay” Lucas and the South Carolina House of Representatives, the party to which these Requests are directed, as well as its Representatives (past and present), agents, employees (past and present), or any other person or persons acting for or purportedly acting on behalf of Speaker James H. “Jay” Lucas and the South Carolina House of Representatives.

REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF
DOCUMENTS TO SOUTH CAROLINA
SOLAR BUSINESS ALLIANCE, LLC

TO: COUNSEL FOR SOUTH CAROLINA SOLAR BUSINESS ALLIANCE, LLC

South Carolina Electric & Gas Company ("SCE&G") by and through the undersigned counsel and pursuant to 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 103-833 and S.C.R. Civ. P. 26, 33, and 34, hereby requests that the South Carolina Solar Business Alliance, LLC answer fully and separately, in writing and under oath, the following interrogatories and requests for production of documents within the time prescribed by 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. R. 103-833 and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and produce for inspection and copying the following designated documents in your possession or control at the offices of Womble Bond Dickinson (US) LLP, 1221 Main Street, Suite 1600, Columbia, South Carolina 29201, on or before September 13, 2018.

INSTRUCTIONS

The South Carolina Solar Business Alliance, LLC's responses to SCE&G's First Set of Interrogatories and First Requests for Production of Documents (collectively, the "Requests") should include not only all information and documents available to the South Carolina Solar Business Alliance, LLC, but also all information and documents available to its attorneys, investigators, consultants, agents, or other representatives acting on its behalf. Please respond to the Requests in accordance with the following instructions:

1. Claims of Privilege and Exception to Discovery. If you refuse to disclose any document requested herein, in whole or in part, based on any claim of privilege or immunity, please identify the specific privilege or protection claimed and state the basis for the claim, identifying the pertinent circumstances with sufficient specificity to permit SCE&G to assess the basis of any such claim.
2. Continuing Nature. These Requests are intended to be, and shall be, answered or responded to fully as of the date of response and shall be deemed to be continuing thereafter until the conclusion of this matter. If you should subsequently acquire any further responsive information or documents called for by these requests, you should promptly furnish such information or documents to the undersigned counsel.

3. Objections. If you have a good-faith objection to any of these Requests, or any part thereof, the specific nature of the objection and whether it applies to the entire Request or to a certain portion thereof shall be clearly stated. If there is an objection to any part of a Request, then the part or parts objected to should be indicated and documents responsive to the remaining unobjectionable parts should be provided.

4. Language. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa. Reference to one gender includes the other gender. The word “all” means any and all. The word “including” means “including without limitation.”

5. Time Period. Unless otherwise indicated, these Requests cover the time period from November 1, 2015, until the present.

DEFINITIONS

1. “Combined Regulatory Proceedings.” The term “Combined Regulatory Proceedings” is used herein to collectively refer to the following dockets that are currently pending before the Public Services Commission of South Carolina (the “Commission”) and which have been consolidated for proceedings before the Commission: (a) Docket No. 2017-207-E, which was initiated by Friends of the Earth’s and Sierra Club’s filing of their “Complaint of Friends of the Earth and Sierra Club”; (b) Docket No. 2017-305-E, which was initiated on September 26, 2017, by ORS’s filing of its “Request for Rate Relief to SCE&G Rates Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 58-27-920”; and (c) Docket No. 2017-370-E, which was initiated by SCE&G’s and Dominion Energy, Inc.’s filing of their “Joint Application and Petition of South Carolina Electric & Gas Company and Dominion Energy, Inc.”

2. “Communication.” The word “communication” is used herein to refer to any transmission or exchange of information, whether orally, electronically, or in writing, including, without limitation, any conversations, memoranda, telephone calls, telegraphs, telexes, telecopiers, facsimiles, e-mails, cables, or any other mediums of transmission.

3. “Describe,” “Description,” “Summarize,” or “Summary.” The words “describe,” “description,” “summarize,” and “summary,” when used with respect to any act, negotiation, practice, process, occurrence, occasion, transaction, incident, or course of conduct, means to provide the following information: (i) the time and place thereof; (ii) a chronological account setting forth each element thereof, what such element consisted of, and what transpired as a result thereof; and (iii) the identity of each person involved.

4. “Document” or “Documents.” The words “document” and “documents” are used herein in the most comprehensive and inclusive sense permitted by the regulations of the Commission and Rule 34 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and therefore include, but are not limited to, all forms of recorded information in your actual or constructive possession, custody, or control, whether handwritten, typed, printed, recorded, or stored on computer or personal storage devices, diskettes, videotapes, audio tapes, or photographic film, as well as electronically stored information and data compilations. The terms “document” and “documents” also include any drafts or versions thereof, and all copies on which any mark, alteration, writing, attachment, or any other change from the original appears. By way of example and not limitation, the terms “document” and “documents” include: letters, correspondence, memoranda, e-mail and other electronic communications, voice-mail recordings, facsimile or telefax transmissions, telex or telegrams, film or photographic prints, video or audio recordings, blueprints, drawings, charts, specimens, models, word processing files, PowerPoint files, spreadsheets, images, metadata, programs, databases, and data compilations.

5. “Identify.” The word “identify,” when used with respect to a document, shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) its name or title; (ii) the nature and substance of the document with sufficient particularity to enable it to be identified; (iii) the date of preparation; and (iv) the author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s). When used with respect to a person, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) his or her name; (ii) if a natural person, his or her last-known residential address, telephone number, and e-mail address; and (iii) if a business organization, its last-known complete address and telephone number. With respect to a communication, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) the date and place thereof; (ii) the type of communication (e.g., in-person conversation, e-mail, letter, telephone conversation); (iii) the name, business address, job title, and responsibilities of each person who participated therein, or witnessed or heard any part thereof; (iv) the substance of what was said by each person who participated therein; and (v) the identity of all documents relating thereto.

6. “ORS.” The term “ORS” is used herein to refer to the South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff, as well as all of its predecessors, subsidiaries, related entities, agents, attorneys, directors, employees, officers, and representatives.

7. “People” and “Person.” The words “people” and “person” shall include natural persons, proprietorships, corporations, public corporations, municipal corporations, state governments, local governments, governmental agencies, political subdivisions, partnerships, groups, associations, and other businesses and public organizations.

8. “Relate,” “Relating,” “Relating to,” and “Related to.” The terms “relate,” “relating,” “relating to,” and “related to” mean recording, summarizing, embodying, constituting, reflecting, digesting, referring to, commenting upon, describing, reporting, listing, analyzing, studying, or otherwise discussing in any way a subject matter identified in the Request, and is defined so as to reach all matters within the scope of discovery pursuant to the Commission’s Regulations and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, including all information which, though inadmissible at trial, is reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

9. “You” and “Your.” The words “you” and “your” refer to the South Carolina Solar Business Alliance, LLC, the party to which these Requests are directed, as well as its board (past and present), agents, employees (past and present), representatives, successors, or any other person or persons acting for or purportedly acting on behalf of the South Carolina Solar Business Alliance, LLC.

SOUTH CAROLINA ELECTRIC AND
GAS COMPANY'S FIRST SET OF
INTERROGATORIES AND FIRST
REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF
DOCUMENTS TO SOUTH CAROLINA
PUBLIC SERVICE AUTHORITY

TO: COUNSEL FOR SOUTH CAROLINA PUBLIC SERVICE AUTHORITY

South Carolina Electric & Gas Company ("SCE&G") by and through the undersigned counsel and pursuant to 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 103-833 and S.C.R. Civ. P. 26, 33, and 34, hereby requests that the South Carolina Public Service Authority answer fully and separately, in writing and under oath, the following interrogatories and requests for production of documents within the time prescribed by 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. R. 103-833 and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and produce for inspection and copying the following designated documents in your possession or control at the offices of Womble Bond Dickinson (US) LLP, 1221 Main Street, Suite 1600, Columbia, South Carolina 29201, on or before September 13, 2018.

INSTRUCTIONS

The South Carolina Public Service Authority's responses to SCE&G's First Set of Interrogatories and First Requests for Production of Documents (collectively, the "Requests") should include not only all information and documents available to the South Carolina Public Service Authority, but also all information and documents available to its attorneys, investigators, consultants, agents, or other representatives acting on its behalf. Please respond to the Requests in accordance with the following instructions:

1. Claims of Privilege and Exception to Discovery. If you refuse to disclose any document requested herein, in whole or in part, based on any claim of privilege or immunity, please identify the specific privilege or protection claimed and state the basis for the claim, identifying the pertinent circumstances with sufficient specificity to permit SCE&G to assess the basis of any such claim.

2. Continuing Nature. These Requests are intended to be, and shall be, answered or responded to fully as of the date of response and shall be deemed to be continuing thereafter until the conclusion of this matter. If you should subsequently acquire any further responsive information or documents called for by these requests, you should promptly furnish such information or documents to the undersigned counsel.

3. Objections. If you have a good-faith objection to any of these Requests, or any part thereof, the specific nature of the objection and whether it applies to the entire Request or to a certain portion thereof shall be clearly stated. If there is an objection to any part of a Request, then the part or parts objected to should be indicated and documents responsive to the remaining unobjectionable parts should be provided.

4. Language. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa. Reference to one gender includes the other gender. The word “all” means any and all. The word “including” means “including without limitation.”

5. Time Period. Unless otherwise indicated, these Requests cover the time period from November 1, 2015, until the present.

DEFINITIONS

1. “Combined Regulatory Proceedings.” The term “Combined Regulatory Proceedings” is used herein to collectively refer to the following dockets that are currently pending before the Public Services Commission of South Carolina (the “Commission”) and which have been consolidated for proceedings before the Commission: (a) Docket No. 2017-207-E, which was initiated by Friends of the Earth’s and Sierra Club’s filing of their “Complaint of Friends of the Earth and Sierra Club”; (b) Docket No. 2017-305-E, which was initiated on September 26, 2017, by ORS’s filing of its “Request for Rate Relief to SCE&G Rates Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 58-27-920”; and (c) Docket No. 2017-370-E, which was initiated by SCE&G’s and Dominion Energy, Inc.’s filing of their “Joint Application and Petition of South Carolina Electric & Gas Company and Dominion Energy, Inc.”

2. “Communication.” The word “communication” is used herein to refer to any transmission or exchange of information, whether orally, electronically, or in writing, including, without limitation, any conversations, memoranda, telephone calls, telegraphs, telexes, telecopiers, facsimiles, e-mails, cables, or any other mediums of transmission.

3. “Describe,” “Description,” “Summarize,” or “Summary.” The words “describe,” “description,” “summarize,” and “summary,” when used with respect to any act, negotiation, practice, process, occurrence, occasion, transaction, incident, or course of conduct, means to provide the following information: (i) the time and place thereof; (ii) a chronological account setting forth each element thereof, what such element consisted of, and what transpired as a result thereof; and (iii) the identity of each person involved.

4. “Document” or “Documents.” The words “document” and “documents” are used herein in the most comprehensive and inclusive sense permitted by the regulations of the Commission and Rule 34 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and therefore include, but are not limited to, all forms of recorded information in your actual or constructive possession, custody, or control, whether handwritten, typed, printed, recorded, or stored on computer or personal storage devices, diskettes, videotapes, audio tapes, or photographic film, as well as electronically stored information and data compilations. The terms “document” and “documents” also include any drafts or versions thereof, and all copies on which any mark, alteration, writing, attachment, or any other change from the original appears. By way of example and not limitation, the terms “document” and “documents” include: letters, correspondence, memoranda, e-mail and other electronic communications, voice-mail recordings, facsimile or telefax transmissions, telex or telegrams, film or photographic prints, video or audio recordings, blueprints, drawings, charts, specimens, models, word processing files, PowerPoint files, spreadsheets, images, metadata, programs, databases, and data compilations.

5. “Identify.” The word “identify,” when used with respect to a document, shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) its name or title; (ii) the nature and substance of the document with sufficient particularity to enable it to be identified; (iii) the date of preparation; and (iv) the author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s). When used with respect to a person, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) his or her name; (ii) if a natural person, his or her last-known residential address, telephone number, and e-mail address; and (iii) if a business organization, its last-known complete address and telephone number. With respect to a communication, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) the date and place thereof; (ii) the type of communication (e.g., in-person conversation, e-mail, letter, telephone conversation); (iii) the name, business address, job title, and responsibilities of each person who participated therein, or witnessed or heard any part thereof; (iv) the substance of what was said by each person who participated therein; and (v) the identity of all documents relating thereto.

6. “ORS.” The term “ORS” is used herein to refer to the South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff, as well as all of its predecessors, subsidiaries, related entities, agents, attorneys, directors, employees, officers, and representatives.

7. “People” and “Person.” The words “people” and “person” shall include natural persons, proprietorships, corporations, public corporations, municipal corporations, state governments, local governments, governmental agencies, political subdivisions, partnerships, groups, associations, and other businesses and public organizations.

8. “Relate,” “Relating,” “Relating to,” and “Related to.” The terms “relate,” “relating,” “relating to,” and “related to” mean recording, summarizing, embodying, constituting, reflecting, digesting, referring to, commenting upon, describing, reporting, listing, analyzing, studying, or otherwise discussing in any way a subject matter identified in the Request, and is defined so as to reach all matters within the scope of discovery pursuant to the Commission’s Regulations and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, including all information which, though inadmissible at trial, is reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

9. “You” and “Your.” The words “you” and “your” refer to the South Carolina Public Service Authority, the party to which these Requests are directed, as well as its President and Chief Executive Officer, board of directors (past and present), agents, employees (past and present), representatives, successors, or any other person or persons acting for or purportedly acting on behalf of the South Carolina Public Service Authority.

TO: COUNSEL FOR SOUTH CAROLINA ENERGY USERS COMMITTEE

South Carolina Electric & Gas Company ("SCE&G") by and through the undersigned counsel and pursuant to 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 103-833 and S.C.R. Civ. P. 26, 33, and 34, hereby requests that the South Carolina Energy Users Committee answer fully and separately, in writing and under oath, the following interrogatories and requests for production of documents within the time prescribed by 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. R. 103-833 and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and produce for inspection and copying the following designated documents in your possession or control at the offices of Womble Bond Dickinson (US) LLP, 1221 Main Street, Suite 1600, Columbia, South Carolina 29201, on or before September 13, 2018.

INSTRUCTIONS

The South Carolina Energy Users Committee's responses to SCE&G's First Set of Interrogatories and First Requests for Production of Documents (collectively, the "Requests") should include not only all information and documents available to the South Carolina Energy Users Committee, but also all information and documents available to its attorneys, investigators, consultants, agents, or other representatives acting on its behalf. Please respond to the Requests in accordance with the following instructions:

1. Claims of Privilege and Exception to Discovery. If you refuse to disclose any document requested herein, in whole or in part, based on any claim of privilege or immunity, please identify the specific privilege or protection claimed and state the basis for the claim, identifying the pertinent circumstances with sufficient specificity to permit SCE&G to assess the basis of any such claim.
2. Continuing Nature. These Requests are intended to be, and shall be, answered or responded to fully as of the date of response and shall be deemed to be continuing thereafter until the conclusion of this matter. If you should subsequently acquire any further responsive information or documents called for by these requests, you should promptly furnish such information or documents to the undersigned counsel.

3. Objections. If you have a good-faith objection to any of these Requests, or any part thereof, the specific nature of the objection and whether it applies to the entire Request or to a certain portion thereof shall be clearly stated. If there is an objection to any part of a Request, then the part or parts objected to should be indicated and documents responsive to the remaining unobjectionable parts should be provided.

4. Language. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa. Reference to one gender includes the other gender. The word “all” means any and all. The word “including” means “including without limitation.”

5. Time Period. Unless otherwise indicated, these Requests cover the time period from November 1, 2015, until the present.

DEFINITIONS

1. “Combined Regulatory Proceedings.” The term “Combined Regulatory Proceedings” is used herein to collectively refer to the following dockets that are currently pending before the Public Services Commission of South Carolina (the “Commission”) and which have been consolidated for proceedings before the Commission: (a) Docket No. 2017-207-E, which was initiated by Friends of the Earth’s and Sierra Club’s filing of their “Complaint of Friends of the Earth and Sierra Club”; (b) Docket No. 2017-305-E, which was initiated on September 26, 2017, by ORS’s filing of its “Request for Rate Relief to SCE&G Rates Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 58-27-920”; and (c) Docket No. 2017-370-E, which was initiated by SCE&G’s and Dominion Energy, Inc.’s filing of their “Joint Application and Petition of South Carolina Electric & Gas Company and Dominion Energy, Inc.”

2. “Communication.” The word “communication” is used herein to refer to any transmission or exchange of information, whether orally, electronically, or in writing, including, without limitation, any conversations, memoranda, telephone calls, telegraphs, telexes, telecopiers, facsimiles, e-mails, cables, or any other mediums of transmission.

3. “Describe,” “Description,” “Summarize,” or “Summary.” The words “describe,” “description,” “summarize,” and “summary,” when used with respect to any act, negotiation, practice, process, occurrence, occasion, transaction, incident, or course of conduct, means to provide the following information: (i) the time and place thereof; (ii) a chronological account setting forth each element thereof, what such element consisted of, and what transpired as a result thereof; and (iii) the identity of each person involved.

4. “Document” or “Documents.” The words “document” and “documents” are used herein in the most comprehensive and inclusive sense permitted by the regulations of the Commission and Rule 34 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and therefore include, but are not limited to, all forms of recorded information in your actual or constructive possession, custody, or control, whether handwritten, typed, printed, recorded, or stored on computer or personal storage devices, diskettes, videotapes, audio tapes, or photographic film, as well as electronically stored information and data compilations. The terms “document” and “documents” also include any drafts or versions thereof, and all copies on which any mark, alteration, writing, attachment, or any other change from the original appears. By way of example and not limitation, the terms “document” and “documents” include: letters, correspondence, memoranda, e-mail and other electronic communications, voice-mail recordings, facsimile or telefax transmissions, telex or telegrams, film or photographic prints, video or audio recordings, blueprints, drawings, charts, specimens, models, word processing files, PowerPoint files, spreadsheets, images, metadata, programs, databases, and data compilations.

5. “Identify.” The word “identify,” when used with respect to a document, shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) its name or title; (ii) the nature and substance of the document with sufficient particularity to enable it to be identified; (iii) the date of preparation; and (iv) the author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s). When used with respect to a person, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) his or her name; (ii) if a natural person, his or her last-known residential address, telephone number, and e-mail address; and (iii) if a business organization, its last-known complete address and telephone number. With respect to a communication, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) the date and place thereof; (ii) the type of communication (e.g., in-person conversation, e-mail, letter, telephone conversation); (iii) the name, business address, job title, and responsibilities of each person who participated therein, or witnessed or heard any part thereof; (iv) the substance of what was said by each person who participated therein; and (v) the identity of all documents relating thereto.

6. “ORS.” The term “ORS” is used herein to refer to the South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff, as well as all of its predecessors, subsidiaries, related entities, agents, attorneys, directors, employees, officers, and representatives.

7. “People” and “Person.” The words “people” and “person” shall include natural persons, proprietorships, corporations, public corporations, municipal corporations, state governments, local governments, governmental agencies, political subdivisions, partnerships, groups, associations, and other businesses and public organizations.

8. “Relate,” “Relating,” “Relating to,” and “Related to.” The terms “relate,” “relating,” “relating to,” and “related to” mean recording, summarizing, embodying, constituting, reflecting, digesting, referring to, commenting upon, describing, reporting, listing, analyzing, studying, or otherwise discussing in any way a subject matter identified in the Request, and is defined so as to reach all matters within the scope of discovery pursuant to the Commission’s Regulations and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, including all information which, though inadmissible at trial, is reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

9. “You” and “Your.” The words “you” and “your” refer to the South Carolina Energy Users Committee, the party to which these Requests are directed, as well as its members (past and present), agents, employees (past and present), representatives, successors, or any other person or persons acting for or purportedly acting on behalf of the South Carolina Energy Users Committee.

SOUTH CAROLINA ELECTRIC AND
GAS COMPANY'S FIRST SET OF
REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS TO FRANK KNAPP JR.

IN RE:

Joint Application and Petition of South Carolina Electric & Gas Company and Dominion Energy, Inc., for review and approval of a proposed business combination between SCANA Corporation and Dominion Energy, Inc., as may be required, and for a prudency determination regarding the abandonment of the V.C. Summer Units 2 & 3

TO: COUNSEL FOR FRANK KNAPP JR.

South Carolina Electric & Gas Company ("SCE&G") by and through the undersigned counsel and pursuant to 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 103-833 and S.C.R. Civ. P. 26, 33, and 34, hereby requests that Frank Knapp Jr. answer fully and separately, in writing and under oath, the following interrogatories and requests for production of documents within the time prescribed by 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. R. 103-833 and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and produce for inspection and copying the following designated documents in your possession or control at the offices of Womble Bond Dickinson (US) LLP, 1221 Main Street, Suite 1600, Columbia, South Carolina 29201, on or before September 13, 2018.

INSTRUCTIONS

Frank Knapp Jr.'s responses to SCE&G's First Set of Interrogatories and First Requests for Production of Documents (collectively, the "Requests") should include not only all information and documents available to Frank Knapp Jr., but also all information and documents available to its attorneys, investigators, consultants, agents, or other representatives acting on its behalf. Please respond to the Requests in accordance with the following instructions:

1. Claims of Privilege and Exception to Discovery. If you refuse to disclose any document requested herein, in whole or in part, based on any claim of privilege or immunity, please identify the specific privilege or protection claimed and state the basis for the claim, identifying the pertinent circumstances with sufficient specificity to permit SCE&G to assess the basis of any such claim.

2. Continuing Nature. These Requests are intended to be, and shall be, answered or responded to fully as of the date of response and shall be deemed to be continuing thereafter until the conclusion of this matter. If you should subsequently acquire any further responsive information or documents called for by these requests, you should promptly furnish such information or documents to the undersigned counsel.

3. Objections. If you have a good-faith objection to any of these Requests, or any part thereof, the specific nature of the objection and whether it applies to the entire Request or to a certain portion thereof shall be clearly stated. If there is an objection to any part of a Request, then the part or parts objected to should be indicated and documents responsive to the remaining unobjectionable parts should be provided.

4. Language. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa. Reference to one gender includes the other gender. The word “all” means any and all. The word “including” means “including without limitation.”

5. Time Period. Unless otherwise indicated, these Requests cover the time period from November 1, 2015, until the present.

DEFINITIONS

1. “Combined Regulatory Proceedings.” The term “Combined Regulatory Proceedings” is used herein to collectively refer to the following dockets that are currently pending before the Public Services Commission of South Carolina (the “Commission”) and which have been consolidated for proceedings before the Commission: (a) Docket No. 2017-207-E, which was initiated by Friends of the Earth’s and Sierra Club’s filing of their “Complaint of Friends of the Earth and Sierra Club”; (b) Docket No. 2017-305-E, which was initiated on September 26, 2017, by ORS’s filing of its “Request for Rate Relief to SCE&G Rates Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 58-27-920”; and (c) Docket No. 2017-370-E, which was initiated by SCE&G’s and Dominion Energy, Inc.’s filing of their “Joint Application and Petition of South Carolina Electric & Gas Company and Dominion Energy, Inc.”

2. “Communication.” The word “communication” is used herein to refer to any transmission or exchange of information, whether orally, electronically, or in writing, including, without limitation, any conversations, memoranda, telephone calls, telegraphs, telexes, telecopiers, facsimiles, e-mails, cables, or any other mediums of transmission.

3. “Describe,” “Description,” “Summarize,” or “Summary.” The words “describe,” “description,” “summarize,” and “summary,” when used with respect to any act, negotiation, practice, process, occurrence, occasion, transaction, incident, or course of conduct, means to provide the following information: (i) the time and place thereof; (ii) a chronological account setting forth each element thereof, what such element consisted of, and what transpired as a result thereof; and (iii) the identity of each person involved.

4. “Document” or “Documents.” The words “document” and “documents” are used herein in the most comprehensive and inclusive sense permitted by the regulations of the Commission and Rule 34 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and therefore include, but are not limited to, all forms of recorded information in your actual or constructive possession, custody, or control, whether handwritten, typed, printed, recorded, or stored on computer or personal storage devices, diskettes, videotapes, audio tapes, or photographic film, as well as electronically stored information and data compilations. The terms “document” and “documents” also include any drafts or versions thereof, and all copies on which any mark, alteration, writing, attachment, or any other change from the original appears. By way of example and not limitation, the terms “document” and “documents” include: letters, correspondence, memoranda, e-mail and other electronic communications, voice-mail recordings, facsimile or telefax transmissions, telex or telegrams, film or photographic prints, video or audio recordings, blueprints, drawings, charts, specimens, models, word processing files, PowerPoint files, spreadsheets, images, metadata, programs, databases, and data compilations.

5. “Identify.” The word “identify,” when used with respect to a document, shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) its name or title; (ii) the nature and substance of the document with sufficient particularity to enable it to be identified; (iii) the date of preparation; and (iv) the author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s). When used with respect to a person, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) his or her name; (ii) if a natural person, his or her last-known residential address, telephone number, and e-mail address; and (iii) if a business organization, its last-known complete address and telephone number. With respect to a communication, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) the date and place thereof; (ii) the type of communication (e.g., in-person conversation, e-mail, letter, telephone conversation); (iii) the name, business address, job title, and responsibilities of each person who participated therein, or witnessed or heard any part thereof; (iv) the substance of what was said by each person who participated therein; and (v) the identity of all documents relating thereto.

6. “ORS.” The term “ORS” is used herein to refer to the South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff, as well as all of its predecessors, subsidiaries, related entities, agents, attorneys, directors, employees, officers, and representatives.

7. “People” and “Person.” The words “people” and “person” shall include natural persons, proprietorships, corporations, public corporations, municipal corporations, state governments, local governments, governmental agencies, political subdivisions, partnerships, groups, associations, and other businesses and public organizations.

8. “Relate,” “Relating,” “Relating to,” and “Related to.” The terms “relate,” “relating,” “relating to,” and “related to” mean recording, summarizing, embodying, constituting, reflecting, digesting, referring to, commenting upon, describing, reporting, listing, analyzing, studying, or otherwise discussing in any way a subject matter identified in the Request, and is defined so as to reach all matters within the scope of discovery pursuant to the Commission’s Regulations and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, including all information which, though inadmissible at trial, is reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

9. “You” and “Your.” The words “you” and “your” refer to Frank Knapp Jr., the party to which these Requests are directed, as well as any agents, attorneys, representatives, or any other person or persons acting for or purportedly acting on his behalf.

REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF
DOCUMENTS TO CMC STEEL SOUTH

TO: COUNSEL FOR CMC STEEL SOUTH CAROLINA

South Carolina Electric & Gas Company ("SCE&G") by and through the undersigned counsel and pursuant to 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 103-833 and S.C.R. Civ. P. 26, 33, and 34, hereby requests that CMC Steel South Carolina answer fully and separately, in writing and under oath, the following interrogatories and requests for production of documents within the time prescribed by 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. R. 103-833 and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and produce for inspection and copying the following designated documents in your possession or control at the offices of Womble Bond Dickinson (US) LLP, 1221 Main Street, Suite 1600, Columbia, South Carolina 29201, on or before September 13, 2018.

INSTRUCTIONS

CMC Steel South Carolina's responses to SCE&G's First Set of Interrogatories and First Requests for Production of Documents (collectively, the "Requests") should include not only all information and documents available to CMC Steel South Carolina, but also all information and documents available to its attorneys, investigators, consultants, agents, or other representatives acting on its behalf. Please respond to the Requests in accordance with the following instructions:

1. Claims of Privilege and Exception to Discovery. If you refuse to disclose any document requested herein, in whole or in part, based on any claim of privilege or immunity, please identify the specific privilege or protection claimed and state the basis for the claim, identifying the pertinent circumstances with sufficient specificity to permit SCE&G to assess the basis of any such claim.

2. Continuing Nature. These Requests are intended to be, and shall be, answered or responded to fully as of the date of response and shall be deemed to be continuing thereafter until the conclusion of this matter. If you should subsequently acquire any further responsive information or documents called for by these requests, you should promptly furnish such information or documents to the undersigned counsel.

3. Objections. If you have a good-faith objection to any of these Requests, or any part thereof, the specific nature of the objection and whether it applies to the entire Request or to a certain portion thereof shall be clearly stated. If there is an objection to any part of a Request, then the part or parts objected to should be indicated and documents responsive to the remaining unobjectionable parts should be provided.

4. Language. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa. Reference to one gender includes the other gender. The word “all” means any and all. The word “including” means “including without limitation.”

5. Time Period. Unless otherwise indicated, these Requests cover the time period from November 1, 2015, until the present.

DEFINITIONS

1. “Combined Regulatory Proceedings.” The term “Combined Regulatory Proceedings” is used herein to collectively refer to the following dockets that are currently pending before the Public Services Commission of South Carolina (the “Commission”) and which have been consolidated for proceedings before the Commission: (a) Docket No. 2017-207-E, which was initiated by Friends of the Earth’s and Sierra Club’s filing of their “Complaint of Friends of the Earth and Sierra Club”; (b) Docket No. 2017-305-E, which was initiated on September 26, 2017, by ORS’s filing of its “Request for Rate Relief to SCE&G Rates Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 58-27-920”; and (c) Docket No. 2017-370-E, which was initiated by SCE&G’s and Dominion Energy, Inc.’s filing of their “Joint Application and Petition of South Carolina Electric & Gas Company and Dominion Energy, Inc.”

2. “Communication.” The word “communication” is used herein to refer to any transmission or exchange of information, whether orally, electronically, or in writing, including, without limitation, any conversations, memoranda, telephone calls, telegraphs, telexes, telecopiers, facsimiles, e-mails, cables, or any other mediums of transmission.

3. “Describe,” “Description,” “Summarize,” or “Summary.” The words “describe,” “description,” “summarize,” and “summary,” when used with respect to any act, negotiation, practice, process, occurrence, occasion, transaction, incident, or course of conduct, means to provide the following information: (i) the time and place thereof; (ii) a chronological account setting forth each element thereof, what such element consisted of, and what transpired as a result thereof; and (iii) the identity of each person involved.

4. “Document” or “Documents.” The words “document” and “documents” are used herein in the most comprehensive and inclusive sense permitted by the regulations of the Commission and Rule 34 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and therefore include, but are not limited to, all forms of recorded information in your actual or constructive possession, custody, or control, whether handwritten, typed, printed, recorded, or stored on computer or personal storage devices, diskettes, videotapes, audio tapes, or photographic film, as well as electronically stored information and data compilations. The terms “document” and “documents” also include any drafts or versions thereof, and all copies on which any mark, alteration, writing, attachment, or any other change from the original appears. By way of example and not limitation, the terms “document” and “documents” include: letters, correspondence, memoranda, e-mail and other electronic communications, voice-mail recordings, facsimile or telefax transmissions, telex or telegrams, film or photographic prints, video or audio recordings, blueprints, drawings, charts, specimens, models, word processing files, PowerPoint files, spreadsheets, images, metadata, programs, databases, and data compilations.

5. “Identify.” The word “identify,” when used with respect to a document, shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) its name or title; (ii) the nature and substance of the document with sufficient particularity to enable it to be identified; (iii) the date of preparation; and (iv) the author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s). When used with respect to a person, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) his or her name; (ii) if a natural person, his or her last-known residential address, telephone number, and e-mail address; and (iii) if a business organization, its last-known complete address and telephone number. With respect to a communication, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) the date and place thereof; (ii) the type of communication (e.g., in-person conversation, e-mail, letter, telephone conversation); (iii) the name, business address, job title, and responsibilities of each person who participated therein, or witnessed or heard any part thereof; (iv) the substance of what was said by each person who participated therein; and (v) the identity of all documents relating thereto.

6. “ORS.” The term “ORS” is used herein to refer to the South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff, as well as all of its predecessors, subsidiaries, related entities, agents, attorneys, directors, employees, officers, and representatives.

7. “People” and “Person.” The words “people” and “person” shall include natural persons, proprietorships, corporations, public corporations, municipal corporations, state governments, local governments, governmental agencies, political subdivisions, partnerships, groups, associations, and other businesses and public organizations.

8. “Relate,” “Relating,” “Relating to,” and “Related to.” The terms “relate,” “relating,” “relating to,” and “related to” mean recording, summarizing, embodying, constituting, reflecting, digesting, referring to, commenting upon, describing, reporting, listing, analyzing, studying, or otherwise discussing in any way a subject matter identified in the Request, and is defined so as to reach all matters within the scope of discovery pursuant to the Commission’s Regulations and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, including all information which, though inadmissible at trial, is reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

9. “You” and “Your.” The words “you” and “your” refer to CMC Steel South Carolina, the party to which these Requests are directed, as well as its President and CEO (past and present), agents, employees (past and present), representatives, successors, or any other person or persons acting for or purportedly acting on behalf of CMC Steel South Carolina.

information or documents called for by these requests, you should promptly furnish such information or documents to the undersigned counsel.

3. Objections. If you have a good-faith objection to any of these Requests, or any part thereof, the specific nature of the objection and whether it applies to the entire Request or to a certain portion thereof shall be clearly stated. If there is an objection to any part of a Request, then the part or parts objected to should be indicated and documents responsive to the remaining unobjectionable parts should be provided.

4. Language. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa. Reference to one gender includes the other gender. The word “all” means any and all. The word “including” means “including without limitation.”

5. Time Period. Unless otherwise indicated, these Requests cover the time period from November 1, 2015, until the present.

DEFINITIONS

1. “Combined Regulatory Proceedings.” The term “Combined Regulatory Proceedings” is used herein to collectively refer to the following dockets that are currently pending before the Public Services Commission of South Carolina (the “Commission”) and which have been consolidated for proceedings before the Commission: (a) Docket No. 2017-207-E, which was initiated by Friends of the Earth’s and Sierra Club’s filing of their “Complaint of Friends of the Earth and Sierra Club”; (b) Docket No. 2017-305-E, which was initiated on September 26, 2017, by ORS’s filing of its “Request for Rate Relief to SCE&G Rates Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 58-27-920”; and (c) Docket No. 2017-370-E, which was initiated by SCE&G’s and Dominion Energy, Inc.’s filing of their “Joint Application and Petition of South Carolina Electric & Gas Company and Dominion Energy, Inc.”

2. “Communication.” The word “communication” is used herein to refer to any transmission or exchange of information, whether orally, electronically, or in writing, including, without limitation, any conversations, memoranda, telephone calls, telegraphs, telexes, telecopiers, facsimiles, e-mails, cables, or any other mediums of transmission.

3. “Describe,” “Description,” “Summarize,” or “Summary.” The words “describe,” “description,” “summarize,” and “summary,” when used with respect to any act, negotiation, practice, process, occurrence, occasion, transaction, incident, or course of conduct, means to provide the following information: (i) the time and place thereof; (ii) a chronological account setting forth each element thereof, what such element consisted of, and what transpired as a result thereof; and (iii) the identity of each person involved.

4. “Document” or “Documents.” The words “document” and “documents” are used herein in the most comprehensive and inclusive sense permitted by the regulations of the Commission and Rule 34 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and therefore include, but are not limited to, all forms of recorded information in your actual or constructive possession, custody, or control, whether handwritten, typed, printed, recorded, or stored on computer or personal storage devices, diskettes, videotapes, audio tapes, or photographic film, as well as electronically stored information and data compilations. The terms “document” and “documents” also include any drafts or versions thereof, and all copies on which any mark, alteration, writing, attachment, or any other change from the original appears. By way of example and not limitation, the terms “document” and “documents” include: letters, correspondence, memoranda, e-mail and other electronic communications, voice-mail recordings, facsimile or telefax transmissions, telex or telegrams, film or photographic prints, video or audio recordings, blueprints, drawings, charts, specimens, models, word processing files, PowerPoint files, spreadsheets, images, metadata, programs, databases, and data compilations.

5. “Identify.” The word “identify,” when used with respect to a document, shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) its name or title; (ii) the nature and substance of the document with sufficient particularity to enable it to be identified; (iii) the date of preparation; and (iv) the author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s). When used with respect to a person, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) his or her name; (ii) if a natural person, his or her last-known residential address, telephone number, and e-mail address; and (iii) if a business organization, its last-known complete address and telephone number. With respect to a communication, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) the date and place thereof; (ii) the type of communication (e.g., in-person conversation, e-mail, letter, telephone conversation); (iii) the name, business address, job title, and responsibilities of each person who participated therein, or witnessed or heard any part thereof; (iv) the substance of what was said by each person who participated therein; and (v) the identity of all documents relating thereto.

6. “ORS.” The term “ORS” is used herein to refer to the South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff, as well as all of its predecessors, subsidiaries, related entities, agents, attorneys, directors, employees, officers, and representatives.

7. “People” and “Person.” The words “people” and “person” shall include natural persons, proprietorships, corporations, public corporations, municipal corporations, state governments, local governments, governmental agencies, political subdivisions, partnerships, groups, associations, and other businesses and public organizations.

8. “Relate,” “Relating,” “Relating to,” and “Related to.” The terms “relate,” “relating,” “relating to,” and “related to” mean recording, summarizing, embodying, constituting, reflecting, digesting, referring to, commenting upon, describing, reporting, listing, analyzing, studying, or otherwise discussing in any way a subject matter identified in the Request, and is defined so as to reach all matters within the scope of discovery pursuant to the Commission’s Regulations and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, including all information which, though inadmissible at trial, is reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

9. “You” and “Your.” The words “you” and “your” refer to the Sierra Club, the party to which these Requests are directed, as well as its officers (past and present), agents, employees (past and present), representatives, successors, or any other person or persons acting for or purportedly acting on behalf of the Sierra Club.

TO: COUNSEL FOR LYNN TEAGUE

South Carolina Electric & Gas Company ("SCE&G") by and through the undersigned counsel and pursuant to 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 103-833 and S.C.R. Civ. P. 26, 33, and 34, hereby requests that Lynn Teague answer fully and separately, in writing and under oath, the following interrogatories and requests for production of documents within the time prescribed by 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. R. 103-833 and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and produce for inspection and copying the following designated documents in your possession or control at the offices of Womble Bond Dickinson (US) LLP, 1221 Main Street, Suite 1600, Columbia, South Carolina 29201, on or before September 13, 2018.

INSTRUCTIONS

Lynn Teague's responses to SCE&G's First Set of Interrogatories and First Requests for Production of Documents (collectively, the "Requests") should include not only all information and documents available to Lynn Teague, but also all information and documents available to its attorneys, investigators, consultants, agents, or other representatives acting on its behalf. Please respond to the Requests in accordance with the following instructions:

1. Claims of Privilege and Exception to Discovery. If you refuse to disclose any document requested herein, in whole or in part, based on any claim of privilege or immunity, please identify the specific privilege or protection claimed and state the basis for the claim, identifying the pertinent circumstances with sufficient specificity to permit SCE&G to assess the basis of any such claim.

2. Continuing Nature. These Requests are intended to be, and shall be, answered or responded to fully as of the date of response and shall be deemed to be continuing thereafter until the conclusion of this matter. If you should subsequently acquire any further responsive information or documents called for by these requests, you should promptly furnish such information or documents to the undersigned counsel.

3. Objections. If you have a good-faith objection to any of these Requests, or any part thereof, the specific nature of the objection and whether it applies to the entire Request or to a certain portion thereof shall be clearly stated. If there is an objection to any part of a Request, then the part or parts objected to should be indicated and documents responsive to the remaining unobjectionable parts should be provided.

4. Language. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa. Reference to one gender includes the other gender. The word “all” means any and all. The word “including” means “including without limitation.”

5. Time Period. Unless otherwise indicated, these Requests cover the time period from November 1, 2015, until the present.

DEFINITIONS

1. “Combined Regulatory Proceedings.” The term “Combined Regulatory Proceedings” is used herein to collectively refer to the following dockets that are currently pending before the Public Services Commission of South Carolina (the “Commission”) and which have been consolidated for proceedings before the Commission: (a) Docket No. 2017-207-E, which was initiated by Friends of the Earth’s and Sierra Club’s filing of their “Complaint of Friends of the Earth and Sierra Club”; (b) Docket No. 2017-305-E, which was initiated on September 26, 2017, by ORS’s filing of its “Request for Rate Relief to SCE&G Rates Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 58-27-920”; and (c) Docket No. 2017-370-E, which was initiated by SCE&G’s and Dominion Energy, Inc.’s filing of their “Joint Application and Petition of South Carolina Electric & Gas Company and Dominion Energy, Inc.”

2. “Communication.” The word “communication” is used herein to refer to any transmission or exchange of information, whether orally, electronically, or in writing, including, without limitation, any conversations, memoranda, telephone calls, telegraphs, telexes, telecopiers, facsimiles, e-mails, cables, or any other mediums of transmission.

3. “Describe,” “Description,” “Summarize,” or “Summary.” The words “describe,” “description,” “summarize,” and “summary,” when used with respect to any act, negotiation, practice, process, occurrence, occasion, transaction, incident, or course of conduct, means to provide the following information: (i) the time and place thereof; (ii) a chronological account setting forth each element thereof, what such element consisted of, and what transpired as a result thereof; and (iii) the identity of each person involved.

4. “Document” or “Documents.” The words “document” and “documents” are used herein in the most comprehensive and inclusive sense permitted by the regulations of the Commission and Rule 34 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and therefore include, but are not limited to, all forms of recorded information in your actual or constructive possession, custody, or control, whether handwritten, typed, printed, recorded, or stored on computer or personal storage devices, diskettes, videotapes, audio tapes, or photographic film, as well as electronically stored information and data compilations. The terms “document” and “documents” also include any drafts or versions thereof, and all copies on which any mark, alteration, writing, attachment, or any other change from the original appears. By way of example and not limitation, the terms “document” and “documents” include: letters, correspondence, memoranda, e-mail and other electronic communications, voice-mail recordings, facsimile or telefax transmissions, telex or telegrams, film or photographic prints, video or audio recordings, blueprints, drawings, charts, specimens, models, word processing files, PowerPoint files, spreadsheets, images, metadata, programs, databases, and data compilations.

5. “Identify.” The word “identify,” when used with respect to a document, shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) its name or title; (ii) the nature and substance of the document with sufficient particularity to enable it to be identified; (iii) the date of preparation; and (iv) the author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s). When used with respect to a person, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) his or her name; (ii) if a natural person, his or her last-known residential address, telephone number, and e-mail address; and (iii) if a business organization, its last-known complete address and telephone number. With respect to a communication, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) the date and place thereof; (ii) the type of communication (e.g., in-person conversation, e-mail, letter, telephone conversation); (iii) the name, business address, job title, and responsibilities of each person who participated therein, or witnessed or heard any part thereof; (iv) the substance of what was said by each person who participated therein; and (v) the identity of all documents relating thereto.

6. “ORS.” The term “ORS” is used herein to refer to the South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff, as well as all of its predecessors, subsidiaries, related entities, agents, attorneys, directors, employees, officers, and representatives.

7. “People” and “Person.” The words “people” and “person” shall include natural persons, proprietorships, corporations, public corporations, municipal corporations, state governments, local governments, governmental agencies, political subdivisions, partnerships, groups, associations, and other businesses and public organizations.

8. “Relate,” “Relating,” “Relating to,” and “Related to.” The terms “relate,” “relating,” “relating to,” and “related to” mean recording, summarizing, embodying, constituting, reflecting, digesting, referring to, commenting upon, describing, reporting, listing, analyzing, studying, or otherwise discussing in any way a subject matter identified in the Request, and is defined so as to reach all matters within the scope of discovery pursuant to the Commission’s Regulations and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, including all information which, though inadmissible at trial, is reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

9. “You” and “Your.” The words “you” and “your” refer to Lynn Teague, the party to which these Requests are directed, as well as any agents, attorneys, representatives, or any other person or persons acting for or purportedly acting on her behalf.

2. “Communication.” The word “communication” is used herein to refer to any transmission or exchange of information, whether orally, electronically, or in writing, including, without limitation, any conversations, memoranda, telephone calls, telegraphs, telexes, telecopiers, facsimiles, e-mails, cables, or any other mediums of transmission.

3. “Describe,” “Description,” “Summarize,” or “Summary.” The words “describe,” “description,” “summarize,” and “summary,” when used with respect to any act, negotiation, practice, process, occurrence, occasion, transaction, incident, or course of conduct, means to provide the following information: (i) the time and place thereof; (ii) a chronological account setting forth each element thereof, what such element consisted of, and what transpired as a result thereof; and (iii) the identity of each person involved.

4. “Document” or “Documents.” The words “document” and “documents” are used herein in the most comprehensive and inclusive sense permitted by the regulations of the Commission and Rule 34 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and therefore include, but are not limited to, all forms of recorded information in your actual or constructive possession, custody, or control, whether handwritten, typed, printed, recorded, or stored on computer or personal storage devices, diskettes, videotapes, audio tapes, or photographic film, as well as electronically stored information and data compilations. The terms “document” and “documents” also include any drafts or versions thereof, and all copies on which any mark, alteration, writing, attachment, or any other change from the original appears. By way of example and not limitation, the terms “document” and “documents” include: letters, correspondence, memoranda, e-mail and other electronic communications, voice-mail recordings, facsimile or telefax transmissions, telex or telegrams, film or photographic prints, video or audio recordings, blueprints, drawings, charts, specimens, models, word processing files, PowerPoint files, spreadsheets, images, metadata, programs, databases, and data compilations.

5. “Identify.” The word “identify,” when used with respect to a document, shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) its name or title; (ii) the nature and substance of the document with sufficient particularity to enable it to be identified; (iii) the date of preparation; and (iv) the author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s). When used with respect to a person, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) his or her name; (ii) if a natural person, his or her last-known residential address, telephone number, and e-mail address; and (iii) if a business organization, its last-known complete address and telephone number. With respect to a communication, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) the date and place thereof; (ii) the type of communication (e.g., in-person conversation, e-mail, letter, telephone conversation); (iii) the name, business address, job title, and responsibilities of each person who participated therein, or witnessed or heard any part thereof; (iv) the substance of what was said by each person who participated therein; and (v) the identity of all documents relating thereto.

6. “ORS.” The term “ORS” is used herein to refer to the South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff, as well as all of its predecessors, subsidiaries, related entities, agents, attorneys, directors, employees, officers, and representatives.

7. “People” and “Person.” The words “people” and “person” shall include natural persons, proprietorships, corporations, public corporations, municipal corporations, state governments, local governments, governmental agencies, political subdivisions, partnerships, groups, associations, and other businesses and public organizations.

8. “Relate,” “Relating,” “Relating to,” and “Related to.” The terms “relate,” “relating,” “relating to,” and “related to” mean recording, summarizing, embodying, constituting, reflecting, digesting, referring to, commenting upon, describing, reporting, listing, analyzing, studying, or otherwise discussing in any way a subject matter identified in the Request, and is defined so as to reach all matters within the scope of discovery pursuant to the Commission’s Regulations and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, including all information which, though inadmissible at trial, is reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

9. “You” and “Your.” The words “you” and “your” refer to Dino Teppara, the party to which these Requests are directed.

Re: Docket No. 2017 – 207 – E; Docket No. 2017 – 305 – E;
and Docket No. 2017 – 370 – E

Dear Mr. Dowdey:

Enclosed and served upon you please find South Carolina Electric & Gas Company's First Set of Interrogatories and First Set of Requests for Production of Documents. I understand that you are not represented by counsel in this matter. If you are not intending to offer a witness at the hearing, an email or letter to me stating that fact will be a sufficient response to these requests. If you are intending to offer a witness at the hearing in these matters, please do respond and let me know the details concerning that witness as requested in the attached discovery document.

Sincerely,

Belton T. Zeigler

SOUTH CAROLINA ELECTRIC AND
GAS COMPANY'S FIRST SET OF
INTERROGATORIES AND FIRST
REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF
DOCUMENTS TO WILLIAM T.

TO: COUNSEL FOR WILLIAM T. DOWDEY

South Carolina Electric & Gas Company ("SCE&G") by and through the undersigned counsel and pursuant to 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 103-833 and S.C.R. Civ. P. 26, 33, and 34, hereby requests that William T. Dowdey answer fully and separately, in writing and under oath, the following interrogatories and requests for production of documents within the time prescribed by 10 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. R. 103-833 and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and produce for inspection and copying the following designated documents in your possession or control at the offices of Womble Bond Dickinson (US) LLP, 1221 Main Street, Suite 1600, Columbia, South Carolina 29201, on or before September 13, 2018.

INSTRUCTIONS

William T. Dowdey's responses to SCE&G's First Set of Interrogatories and First Requests for Production of Documents (collectively, the "Requests") should include not only all information and documents available to William T. Dowdey, but also all information and documents available to its attorneys, investigators, consultants, agents, or other representatives acting on its behalf. Please respond to the Requests in accordance with the following instructions:

1. Claims of Privilege and Exception to Discovery. If you refuse to disclose any document requested herein, in whole or in part, based on any claim of privilege or immunity, please identify the specific privilege or protection claimed and state the basis for the claim, identifying the pertinent circumstances with sufficient specificity to permit SCE&G to assess the basis of any such claim.

2. Continuing Nature. These Requests are intended to be, and shall be, answered or responded to fully as of the date of response and shall be deemed to be continuing thereafter until the conclusion of this matter. If you should subsequently acquire any further responsive information or documents called for by these requests, you should promptly furnish such information or documents to the undersigned counsel.

3. Objections. If you have a good-faith objection to any of these Requests, or any part thereof, the specific nature of the objection and whether it applies to the entire Request or to a certain portion thereof shall be clearly stated. If there is an objection to any part of a Request, then the part or parts objected to should be indicated and documents responsive to the remaining unobjectionable parts should be provided.

4. Language. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa. Reference to one gender includes the other gender. The word “all” means any and all. The word “including” means “including without limitation.”

5. Time Period. Unless otherwise indicated, these Requests cover the time period from November 1, 2015, until the present.

DEFINITIONS

1. “Combined Regulatory Proceedings.” The term “Combined Regulatory Proceedings” is used herein to collectively refer to the following dockets that are currently pending before the Public Services Commission of South Carolina (the “Commission”) and which have been consolidated for proceedings before the Commission: (a) Docket No. 2017-207-E, which was initiated by Friends of the Earth’s and Sierra Club’s filing of their “Complaint of Friends of the Earth and Sierra Club”; (b) Docket No. 2017-305-E, which was initiated on September 26, 2017, by ORS’s filing of its “Request for Rate Relief to SCE&G Rates Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 58-27-920”; and (c) Docket No. 2017-370-E, which was initiated by SCE&G’s and Dominion Energy, Inc.’s filing of their “Joint Application and Petition of South Carolina Electric & Gas Company and Dominion Energy, Inc.”

2. “Communication.” The word “communication” is used herein to refer to any transmission or exchange of information, whether orally, electronically, or in writing, including, without limitation, any conversations, memoranda, telephone calls, telegraphs, telexes, telecopiers, facsimiles, e-mails, cables, or any other mediums of transmission.

3. “Describe,” “Description,” “Summarize,” or “Summary.” The words “describe,” “description,” “summarize,” and “summary,” when used with respect to any act, negotiation, practice, process, occurrence, occasion, transaction, incident, or course of conduct, means to provide the following information: (i) the time and place thereof; (ii) a chronological account setting forth each element thereof, what such element consisted of, and what transpired as a result thereof; and (iii) the identity of each person involved.

4. “Document” or “Documents.” The words “document” and “documents” are used herein in the most comprehensive and inclusive sense permitted by the regulations of the Commission and Rule 34 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and therefore include, but are not limited to, all forms of recorded information in your actual or constructive possession, custody, or control, whether handwritten, typed, printed, recorded, or stored on computer or personal storage devices, diskettes, videotapes, audio tapes, or photographic film, as well as electronically stored information and data compilations. The terms “document” and “documents” also include any drafts or versions thereof, and all copies on which any mark, alteration, writing, attachment, or any other change from the original appears. By way of example and not limitation, the terms “document” and “documents” include: letters, correspondence, memoranda, e-mail and other electronic communications, voice-mail recordings, facsimile or telefax transmissions, telex or telegrams, film or photographic prints, video or audio recordings, blueprints, drawings, charts, specimens, models, word processing files, PowerPoint files, spreadsheets, images, metadata, programs, databases, and data compilations.

5. “Identify.” The word “identify,” when used with respect to a document, shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) its name or title; (ii) the nature and substance of the document with sufficient particularity to enable it to be identified; (iii) the date of preparation; and (iv) the author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s). When used with respect to a person, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) his or her name; (ii) if a natural person, his or her last-known residential address, telephone number, and e-mail address; and (iii) if a business organization, its last-known complete address and telephone number. With respect to a communication, the word “identify” shall mean to state with respect thereto, to the extent known: (i) the date and place thereof; (ii) the type of communication (e.g., in-person conversation, e-mail, letter, telephone conversation); (iii) the name, business address, job title, and responsibilities of each person who participated therein, or witnessed or heard any part thereof; (iv) the substance of what was said by each person who participated therein; and (v) the identity of all documents relating thereto.

6. “ORS.” The term “ORS” is used herein to refer to the South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff, as well as all of its predecessors, subsidiaries, related entities, agents, attorneys, directors, employees, officers, and representatives.

7. “People” and “Person.” The words “people” and “person” shall include natural persons, proprietorships, corporations, public corporations, municipal corporations, state governments, local governments, governmental agencies, political subdivisions, partnerships, groups, associations, and other businesses and public organizations.

8. “Relate,” “Relating,” “Relating to,” and “Related to.” The terms “relate,” “relating,” “relating to,” and “related to” mean recording, summarizing, embodying, constituting, reflecting, digesting, referring to, commenting upon, describing, reporting, listing, analyzing, studying, or otherwise discussing in any way a subject matter identified in the Request, and is defined so as to reach all matters within the scope of discovery pursuant to the Commission’s Regulations and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, including all information which, though inadmissible at trial, is reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

9. “You” and “Your.” The words “you” and “your” refer to William T. Dowdey, the party to which these Requests are directed, as well as any agents, attorneys, representatives, or any other person or persons acting for or purportedly acting on his behalf.
